LET'S GET QUIZZICAL

Hi Amy.

Which is the only team in the Premiership or Football League whose name begins with five straight consonants?

Steve, Leicester.

I'm a South London girl Steve, so that's easy. It's the super Eagles - the mighty Crystal Palace!

Hi Hollie.

When England beat Hungary earlier this month, Bobby Zamora became the Three Lions' oldest debutant since which player?

Michael, Bethnal Green.

The lad at Celtic wasn't it...? We were desperately looking for a half decent left-sided player, so Sven picked Alan Thompson. Once.

Hi Amy.

Who became the youngest ever Wembley captain at the 1985 Milk Cup final?

Roger, Lincoln.

That was the Pat Sharpe of the football world Roger. No, not Chrissie Waddle, but Mr Barry Venison who captained Sunderland in their defeat to Norwich. Both teams were relegated from the top flight that season.
